COIL magnifying glasses (Reconditioned)

Used, good technical condition,

English production,

Binoculars by COIL are an innovative magnifying device. They offer a wide range of applications for recreational purposes,

Light, double magnifying the image, they do not take up hands,

They are easy to use. Two knobs on the handles on both sides of the binocular allow precise control of the visual acuity and give the possibility to sharpen the image for each eye separately,

The lenses are made of strong, shatterproof polycarbonate and optimized to provide sharp, distortion-free vision,

The glasses are perfect for watching TV, for example, and they are perfect for watching a show in the theater or opera, as well as for fishing or watching sports events,
