Diode laser is one of the most modern and safest methods of permanent hair removal. The principle of diode laser is based on the phenomenon of selective thermolysis. The laser light is selectively absorbed by the melanin contained in the hair, then turns into thermal energy destroying the hair structures responsible for its growth. The destruction of the hair follicle occurs, while at the same time the tissue surrounding it remains intact,
The device uses the most effective wavelength.
755nm - Wave well and selectively absorbed by melanin. It works slightly shallower than 808nm so it is less painful,
808nm - The wave is also well absorbed by melanin,
1064nm - A wave that acts deeper than 755nm,
The device uses an innovative 12-bar emitter,
The laser provides high efficacy against dark and light hair regardless of phototype,
